

Week at a Glance for 4-1

January 1 – 5

Congratulations to Noor for having her gingerbread house named “Most Creative” in the 3rd -5th grade category!

Religion: We will begin chapter 10 this week in class which discusses vocations, religious life, and the laity. The test on it should be next week!

Spelling: Unit 14 looks at spelling patterns of /er/ such as or, ar, ur and ir. Words #16-20 are vocabulary words from Hatchet.

monitor	working	regular	visitor	dollar
professor	transport	doorstep	thirsty	burrow
wizard	inward	factory	popular	standard
copilot	drone	rudder	lurched	wincing

Reading: Students will begin reading Hatchet in class this week.

Writing: We will do winter-themed writing this week.

Grammar: Students will begin a unit on verbs

Handwriting: This week we will work on writing Oo correctly in cursive.

Math: Students are finishing up their unit on long division. Please help your child maintain this skill and multiplication! If you give your child one long division problem and one 2-digit multiplication problem every other day at home, this will help them to remember these skills! We will keep after them in the classroom too! The next chapter begins looking at patterns with numbers.

Science: Students will begin looking at patterns this week in class to determine codes.

Social Studies: Students will begin reading chapter 6 and start the chapter on the Revolutionary War and how it affected Pennsylvania.
