

Week at a Glance for 4-1

November 13 - 24

Religion: We will continue working on chapter 7 which looks at the Beatitudes and how to apply them to our lives. We will have our test on this chapter on Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

Spelling: We will work on Unit 11 this week. These words focus on the “ar” and “or” sounds in words.

forgot	market	storm	record	sharpen
popcorn	forest	parking	support	carnival
discard	compartment	florist	spark	cork
civilization	frail	mood	perspective	consuming

Reading: We are beginning our next unit in our new reading series, and this unit focuses on survival stories. We are going to do a “book tasting” and look at all three of the books. These books are Hatchet by Gary Paulsen, Mountains by Seymour Simon, and SAS Survival Book by John Wiseman.

Writing: We will be writing about a special gift we would like to give someone and why.

Grammar: Our next concept in grammar is adjectives.

Handwriting: The letters we will work on the letter li in cursive this week.

Math: We will begin learning how to multiply two-digit numbers by a two-digit number this week.

Science: We will finish up our study of volcanoes this week and have a test on them Wednesday. We will even be able to make a volcanic eruption in class! Our next focus will be on the weathering and erosion of rocks.

Social Studies: So that we don’t have chapter 4 to worry about over the Thanksgiving break, we will finish it up and have our test on Tuesday, November 21.
